President of Petroleum Company To Appear Here

When Paul Endacott, president of Phillips Petroleum Company, appears in Vernon at the formal opening and dedication of the new Wilbarger County Auditorium Feb. 4, he will be returning to the scene of some of his earlier work for that organization.

Mr. Endacott will appear on the

Jaycees Pushing Poll Tax Drive

Junior Chamber of Commerce efforts to qualify Wilbarger County resident as voters in 1952 elections were being intensified here Friday as the Jan. 31 poll tax deadline edged closer.

A Jaycee poll tax team began making rounds of Vernon business houses Friday afternoon offering business personnel an opportunity to pay their poll taxes without the bother of going to the local tax office.

Jaycee President W. B. Smith says that club plans also included setting up poll tax booths again in all three city banks Saturday morning. After banking hours Junior Chamber of Commerce workers will issue poll taxes at the corner on Pease and Main Streets. Mr. Smith says that a loud speaker will be used urging persons in town to pay their taxes.

In the meantime, tax payments at the local tax office have moved up 269 since the last published report Thursday. The figure now stands at 4,420, with 1,007 of this number exemptions.

By CLIFF CLINES and W. D. DIXON

Vernon is getting a whale of a lot of publicity in connection with the opening of the new auditorium, scheduled for Feb. 4. Newspapers over the state have carried stories about the plans for presenting the Sons of the Pioneers in connection with the opening, and now they are carrying stories about the plans for the appearance of Drew Pearson here. Several people are due a lot of credit for these programs, including Jern Kilgough, R. B. Anderson and W. H. Wright. They are out to make Vernon entertainment big-time.

Mr. Wright, P. L., and some others are making plans for periodic entertainments in Vernon, using the facilities of the auditorium. Wilbarger County has a tremendous investment in the auditorium and it should be used. With the seating capacity available, it should be possible to bring some outstanding talent to Vernon on a practical basis.

It can be made known now that the undercover agent who broke the Wichita Falls school dope ring used the automobile of R. B. Anderson of Vernon during his work in Wichita. The young man, Texas Joseph Foster, of the Houston police department, has ended his undercover work and returned to his regular squad car. While in Wichita Falls he put on a flashy front, and drove Mr. Anderson's Cadillac as a part of that front.

McDonald Fails To Win Approval For RFC Agency

Banking Committee Refuses to Approve Nomination at Once.

Washington, Jan. 2. (AP)—The Senate banking committee today refused to approve the nomination of Harry A. McDonald to head the RFC pending further study.

It sent word of its decision to President Truman.

McDonald now is chairman of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), which is under investigation of a House commerce subcommittee.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) told a news conference he moved to delay a vote on the confirmation until he receives information concerning the relations of former SEC officials with the agency.

He said McDonald recently sought to halt the practice of SEC officials resigning their jobs and immediately starting to represent clients before the agency. "I cannot believe his effort was heroic," the Senator declared and added: "As of this moment I cannot conscientiously vote for a man who comes out of an organization which permits this practice."

He and other members of the subcommittee declared repeatedly they intended no reflection on McDonald's integrity and character. McDonald is a Republican. "For God's sake, don't make Mr. McDonald a whipping boy," Douglas urged reporters.

McMahon Pulls Out of Primary

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—Senator McMahon of Connecticut today asked that his name be withdrawn from the Illinois Democratic presidential primary.

McMahon made the request in a telegram to Illinois Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett. Senator Kefauver, Tennessee, also has been entered in the primary.

There had been speculation McMahon's name was entered by supporters of President Truman with the idea chiefly of preventing the Illinois vote from going to Kefauver by default.

McMahon's move, together with a hint from President Truman yesterday that he might run for the Senate, left the whole Democratic presidential picture as cloudy as ever.

But in pulling out of the Illinois primary, to be held April 8, McMahon emphasized that he wants Mr. Truman to run for reelection.

"I cannot in good conscience ask the Democrats of Illinois to indicate a preference for me when in my own mind I prefer someone else—Harry S. Truman," he said in a letter to an Illinois leader.

Mr. Truman left the door open for a possible bid for a Senate seat from Missouri in a news conference discussion yesterday.

New Offer Made In Truce Talks

Munsan, Korea, Jan. 25. (AP)—Allied force negotiators suggested today that the thorny question of airfield construction be set aside temporarily and staff officers start work immediately on other details of policing a Korean armistice.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang promised to study the proposal and reply later. He did not say when.

"Basically, this is another effort of the U. N. Command to achieve a realistic armistice as rapidly as possible," said Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, Allied spokesman.

The issue of whether the Communists have the right to build and repair military airfields in North Korea during an armistice has deadlocked truce supervision negotiations since Jan. 9.

PRESIDENT DIES

Reykjavik, Iceland, Jan. 25. (AP)—Iceland's president, Svienn Bjornsson, 71, died today of a heart ailment. He had been ill 18 months. He had been president since 1944, when the Republic of Iceland was proclaimed.

Tank - Supported Troops of Britain Battle Egyptian Police in Ismailia Friday

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 25. (AP)—British troops with tank support battled Egyptian police for six hours in Ismailia today. British officials reported 50 Egyptian police and three British soldiers killed in the bloodiest fighting yet in the Suez Canal Zone.

The British counted 130 Egyptians and 13 British soldiers hurt in the battle, which the British initiated to disarm Egyptian auxiliary police. The British claimed the police were fighting them instead of keeping order.

An embittered Egyptian cabinet was called into emergency session, possibly to consider breaking off diplomatic relations completely with the British.

Despite appeals from outside sources for efforts to make peace in the Suez, relations between the British and the Egyptians appeared to be at their worst point since Egypt cancelled the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty last October and demanded that British troops get out of the vital canal area.

The fighting began in Ismailia, a midway point in the Canal Zone, at dawn. It ended shortly after noon, the British said, when Egyptian police resistance collapsed.

Outnumbered two to one, the police had been under orders to fight to the bitter end. They fired 60,000 rounds of ammunition before they yielded.

The fighting occurred at two main centers — the Egyptian Health Center two blocks from the police headquarters and at the police headquarters itself.

T. R. Easterling Dies on Friday

Death early Friday morning claimed T. R. Easterling, 62, retired court reporter, who lived at 2528 Bismarck. Mr. Easterling died in a local hospital of a heart attack.

Funeral services have been set for 3 p. m. Saturday in Henderson Funeral Chapel, with Rev. Marshall Rhew officiating. Burial will follow in East View Memorial Park.

Born in Dallas on May 16, 1889, Mr. Easterling lived almost all of his life in Vernon, with the exception of 14 and a half years in Memphis, where he served as court reporter for Hall, Childress and Donley counties. He returned to Vernon with his family from Memphis in 1939.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church here and the Huggins Bible Class.

Survivors include his wife; a son, T. R., Jr., of White City; two daughters, Mrs. Coy Dennis of Midland and Mrs. Gordon Walker of Corpus Christi; and three grandchildren, Carol and Russ Walker and Coy Dennis, Jr.

Doctors Silent On Yates Case

Doctors at Baylor Hospital in Dallas would not say today just when another delicate brain operation would be performed on Tommy Yates, four-year-old victim of a brutal Christmas Eve beating.

Judge Jesse Owens returned an official permit to the hospital to proceed with the operation early this week.

The frail lad is still partially paralyzed and has still not uttered a sound since the beating, but attendants reported that "he is fatter and happy, trying to talk but unable to do so."

Mrs. Robert Dale Simpson, mother of Tommy, has been taken to Huntsville to start a 10-year prison sentence in connection with the beating. Simpson, step-father of the child is still awaiting grand jury action here.

The operation has been deemed necessary by doctors in an attempt to relieve the paralysis that has rendered the right side of the child's body helpless and also made him unable to talk again.

Area About Ready to Hire Rainmaker; Meeting Slated

A five-county area meet to discuss the possibility of hiring a professional rainmaker to relieve the severe drought in this section of Texas and Oklahoma has been set for 2 p. m. Jan. 31 at Hollis, Okla., according to word received at the Chamber of Commerce office Friday.

If the five counties in this area decide to use the services of a rainmaker, they will be following the lead set by Panhandle and New Mexico counties during last Spring and Summer arid weather.

Rites Held for D. P. Quisenberry

Funeral rites for David P. Quisenberry, 60-year-old retired Wilbarger County farmer who died Wednesday in a Chillicothe hospital, were held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Tolbert Methodist Church.

Rev. Alford Ahlman, Tolbert pastor, and Rev. Noel Guice, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Vernon, officiated. Interment was in East View Memorial Park under the direction of Underwood Funeral Home.

Mr. Quisenberry, who resided at 1402 Bowie here in Vernon at the time of his death, was born in Harrison, Ark., on June 8, 1891. He was married at Buffalo Springs, Texas, to Miss Hettie Wilson in 1912. They moved to Wilbarger County in 1925, farming near Tolbert for a number of years.

Polio Film To Be Shown Here

The showing of the film, "Mothers March on Polio," will take place for all workers and other interested persons Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Vernon Theatre, Mrs. George Hampton, drive captain, announced Friday.

Mrs. Hampton reported that polio headquarters are now established in the Radio Building in Vernon. She said that plans were being completed for the Jan. 31 drive to obtain the funds to combat polio in 1952.

"We sincerely invite each and everyone to view this film at the Vernon Theatre next Tuesday," Mrs. Hampton said. "Especially do we urge all workers to be present."

One man was fined Friday in County Court, County Attorney Tom Davis reported. A Plainview Negro was fined $77.25 on charges of driving while intoxicated and also had his drivers license suspended for six months.

Disaster Relief Panel Is Named by Chairman Friday

Rev. J. A. Birnbaum, chairman of the local Red Cross disaster committee, has announced the committee who will work with him in the stand-by emergency organization in the event disaster strikes in Wilbarger County.

The organization, set up so that a definite group with fixed responsibilities will be ready to go into immediate action in case tornadoes, floods, widespread fires, or similar disasters strike in the area, is part of a Red Cross program for public welfare and safety.

As long as life functions normally, they have no duties. It is in the event of an emergency which might endanger lives and property that they go into action.

Here are the men and women who will work with Rev. Birnbaum when and if such an emergency does arrive.

Shelter and clothing — J. E. Golden, chairman, and Harry Jacobson, vice chairman.

Medical aid — Mrs. Charles Norwood, chairman, and Mrs. Birdie Dillon, vice chairman.

Emergency food — W. E. Wright of Wright Packing Company; chairman; Sam Maier, vice chairman.

Heavy equipment operation — Neal Slappey.

Communications — Henry Henderson, chairman, and Maurice Bonner, vice chairman.

Survey committee — Frank Wendt, chairman, and R. B. Sherrill, vice chairman.

With the organization now ready to go into operation, members of the group hope they will never have any cause to use it.

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 25. (AP)—Daring American Sabre jet pilots shot down at least 10 Red jets in four flaming air battles over northwest Korea today.

Two Communist MIG-15s exploded almost in the faces of American jets. The blast blew out the jet power in two Sabres, and the Americans had to go into long dives before their jets flamed into action again.

Two other Reds spiraled down in fiery streamers. A fifth went down in long loops, its pilot still trying to regain control, and exploded as it hit the ground.

It was one of the biggest jet victories of the war.

The Fifth Air Force announced 10 Russian-type jets were definitely destroyed, one probably destroyed and three damaged.

The biggest toll in an all-jet battle was Dec. 13 when 13 Red jets were reported destroyed, two probably and three damaged.

American losses, if any, in today's four battles were not announced. U. S. air casualties are reported weekly.

The air war grew in fury as the day wore on while the ground war lay relatively quiet under a blanket of fresh snow. Here's the story of the air battles, all fought in MIG Alley:

1. One Red jet damaged in a morning fight between 18 F-86 Sabre jets and elements of a flight of 30 MIGs.

2. Two Red jets blown up, one set afire, one damaged when 15 Sabres jumped 16 MIGs near the Yalu River in the afternoon.

3. Five MIGs destroyed, one damaged by 17 Sabres who took on elements of a formation of 80 Reds late in the afternoon.

4. Three MIGs destroyed about the same time in a five minute battle between 18 Sabres and 25 MIGs.

"We sincerely invite each and everyone to view this film at the Vernon Theatre next Tuesday," Mrs. Hampton said. "Especially do we urge all workers to be present."

There's been no indication that Wilbarger County will go along on such a project, but J. C. Randel, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said that Vernon and the county should be represented at the meeting to explore all possibilities of drought relief.

Less than an inch of moisture has been recorded in the county since late in 1951. Continued drought is expected to materially damage the 1952 wheat and other small grain crops and winter legumes.

Recommendation Made by Budget Board on Friday

Universities and College Are Rapped by Members of Board.

Austin, Jan. 25. (AP)—The legislative budget board told its research staff today to cut State spending by at least 28 million dollars per year in its next budget recommendations.

Sen. Keith Kelly, Fort Worth, made the motion—unanimously approved by the board. He said he favored an even sharper cut, one which would slash state expenditures 80 million dollars under the 1951 level.

The State's recommendations would not be binding on the board when the latter decides how much to recommend to the 53rd Legislature.

A 28 million dollar reduction would reduce State spending to a level equal to 5 per cent of the personal income of Texas citizens, calculated to hit $10,800,000,000 for 1952.

In other action, board members verbally lashed state universities and colleges for failing to sell state-owned cars as directed by the 52nd Legislature.

The colleges have not sold their cars because Atty.-Gen. Price Daniel ruled the legislative directive was invalid as a part of the general appropriation bill.

Board Director Vernon McGee reported most other agencies have sharply reduced their number of state-owned cars.

"I don't see why the colleges should take it on themselves to be a little better than any other agency of our government," growled Rep. Ray Kirkpatrick, Bonham.

Agreeing, Sen. Howard Carney, Atlanta, said the next Legislature should pass a separate law enforcing sale of all state cars.

The budget board heard sharp criticism of the State Hospital board's decision to build a $1,200,000 general medical and surgical building with 200 beds, on the Austin State Hospital grounds.

Budget Examiner Jess Irwin said 200 beds was far too many for the requirements of 7,000 patients who might need medical or surgical treatment for physical ailments. He said the city of Austin has only 453 hospital beds to serve a regional population of 150,000.

Need Is Greater

He said there was much greater need for additional ward space at places like Abilene State Hospital, where epileptics are housed in a three-story building and 116 patients have to live on open porches where beds are jammed side by side.

"When you see crowded wards like that and then look at a $1,200,000 general hospital, you wonder if good judgment is being exercised by the hospital board—at least as to priority," he declared.

Budget board members observed their hands are tied because the attorney general has ruled they cannot disapprove the decision of another agency such as the hospital board.

Kirkpatrick said it was his "firm conviction" no board should have the right to let a contract until it gets approval of the budget board.

The board also hit soil conservation districts by directing the board of control to disapprove all future requisitions for visual aid equipment such as motion picture projectors.

The action followed McGee's report that board of control chairman had expressed concern over the "size and frequency" of the orders for such equipment.

McGee said six of 12 audits of soil conservation districts showed purchases of visual aid equipment ranging in cost from $59 to $1,705.

"Audits have shown in many instances that equipment bought by the district ends up in the vocational education department of the public school and is used by it exclusively," McGee said.

Gov. Ben Ramsey, budget board chairman, said he thought the districts now have enough equipment to take care of their educational needs by trading equipment.

House Action On Academy Of Air Urged

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—There is still a big question whether Congress will do anything about an Air Force Academy this year.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee told a reporter today he would try to get the House to act on the academy legislation before Congress adjourns.

But Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate armed services committee was doubtful about even committee action in the Senate.

The Air Force Academy would be equivalent to the U. S. Naval and military academies at Annapolis and West Point.

Several bills to authorize it have been introduced, each specifying a site where the school would be located.

Vinson's own bill would leave it up to the Secretary of the Air Force to determine the academy site.

Vinson said he hopes his committee can begin hearings on the Air Force Academy bill soon after it completes work on universal military training legislation, some time in February.

"It is an important bill, and I hope we can act on it, but I can't guarantee anything at this session," he stated.

An Air Force Academy site selection board last year recommended seven possible locations but the congressional committees are in no way bound by these recommendations.

The vicinities finally chosen by the board were these:

Randolph Field, Texas; the Dallas-Fort Worth Texas area; the Charlotte, N. C. area; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Camp Beale at Marysville, Calif.; a site in Grayson County, Texas; and the Madison, Ind., area.

Neither Air Secretary Finletter nor members of the site selection board would comment today on the possible preference of one site over another.

UMT Plan Under Fire on Friday

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—A Pentagon plan to start Universal Military Training (UMT) quickly through volunteers was termed a "clear subterfuge" today by a representative of 450 junior colleges.

Military leaders last week proposed starting a limited UMT by taking 60,000 volunteers for six months' training and 18 months active duty.

Col. James L. Conrad, chairman of the legislation research committee of the American Association of Junior Colleges, called this a "subterfuge" today in a statement prepared for the House Armed Services committee.

As the committee continued open hearings on UMT, there were these related developments in the drive to build up U. S. armed forces:

1. Selective service, seeking to level off induction ages of draftees in each state, ordered draft boards to try to fill the 52,500 February quota with men who will be at least 21 years old when inducted. This means many younger men who faced the February draft may get a breathing spell, but some childless husbands may be called into service.

2. Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson said a survey shows two million disabled Americans could be put to work in America's defense program. He said they not only would add to the nation's labor force, but would be converted from "tax consumers into tax producers." He said it was "sheer waste" not to use these persons now.

Texas Loses Its Chance for Rain

Texas lost its chance for a good, soaking rain today when winds shifted to the southwest and began bringing dry Mexican air into the state.

Strong southerly winds pushed moisture into Texas from the Gulf yesterday but southwest-erlies started blowing it northward today.

This ended hopes of relief to-day from the Texas drought of 14 months. Skies were clear today west of a line from Ardmore, Oklahoma, to Fort Worth to San Angelo. East of that line low scud clouds blotted out the sky.

Low temperatures early today ranged from a minimum of 34 at Presidio to a 68 at Brownsville.

Yesterday's maximum temperatures ranged between 62 at Texarkana and Abilene to 78 at Presidio and Brownsville.

Rainfall totals for 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. included .08 of an inch at Alice and .01 at Austin and Houston. A trace was reported at San Antonio, Waco, Palestine, Galveston, Laredo, Victoria, Texarkana, Lufkin, College Station and Cotulla.

TAKES HEAT OFF

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—The government today took the heat off ice dealers by permitting them to raise prices which have been frozen for a year. Today's action, effective next Wednesday, permits retailers to pass along the exact amount by which his ice costs have gone up.

NEW WEATHER THREAT—Motorists attempt to ford Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, after strong easterly winds drove a generous share of Lake Michigan over the seawall flooding it as much as four feet deep, adding more woes to the already hard-hit Midwest.

Judgeship Bills Are Under Study

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—Two omnibus judgeship bills now in the House, alike in many respects, differ widely in the way they would affect six states.

One bill, passed by the Senate last October, would create 20 new seats.

A bill just introduced by Chairman Celler, Democrat, New York, of the House Judiciary Committee would create 19 new seats, changing various locations.

The House Judiciary Committee can accept either bill or write a new one.

Celler said his measure followed the recommendations of the Judicial Conference, which is composed of the Chief Justice of the United States and the senior judges of the 11 Circuit Courts of Appeals.

The Senate bill is a combination of conference recommendations and amendments.

Both bills would provide one additional Circuit Judge for the Fifth Circuit (Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and the Canal Zone) and one additional District Judge for East Texas, as well as additional judges for other areas.

Under both bills the temporary judgeship in South Texas would be made permanent.

Belgium Doctor Will Try to Save Tot's Life

San Antonio, Jan. 25. (AP)—Dr. Roger Haenges of Brussels, Belgium, was in San Antonio today in an attempt to save the life of a girl, victim of a brain tumor.

The Belgian physician arrived last night after a plane trip from Brussels.

The girl is Sue Ford, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ford. Doctors who operated on the child Dec. 2 said she had a "stem brain tumor, possibly malignant" and gave her two months to live.

Haenges, who believes he has a new medical discovery which can save the girl's life without surgery, heard of the case through an Associated Press story in a Belgium newspaper.

Sue took a turn for the worse several days ago after holding her own since the exploratory operation. She is in a semi-coma and can take little nourishment.

Ford, an engineer, said the Belgian doctor "has excellent medical training." He added, "The Belgian Medical Association says he is a man of high standing. He seems to have cured a number of cases like Sue's."

Mayor Appreciates Support of People

Galveston, Jan. 25. (AP)—Mayor Herbert Y. Cartwright, Jr., today showed his appreciation for the wide support he got from Galveston citizens while he was serving a three-day term in county jail for contempt of 10th District Court.

And he did it in a substantial way.

He announced that the remaining 11 months of his salary as Mayor would be donated to charity and he would work for the city free.

At the same time he announced that scores of businessmen who wanted to pay the $100 fine imposed by Judge Donald Markle, his old schoolmate, along with the jail term, had donated $800 when the Mayor refused their offers.

That $800 will be given to the Moody School for Cerebral Palsy in the name of Mayor and Mrs. Cartwright.

27 PERSONS KILLED

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 25. (AP)—The independent newspaper Al Ahram reported today 27 persons were killed and 287 wounded in a clash between students and Syrian Army officers at Aleppo, Syria. The report said the students were demonstrating against "prevailing conditions" in Syria, where Strong Man Con Adib Shisheky has ruled under a virtual military dictatorship since the Army coup of last November.

Meets Set in Effort to End Strikes

(By The Associated Press)

Meetings were scheduled today at Beaumont and Galveston in efforts to break the deadlock in negotiations keeping some 1,500 striking AFL shipyard workers from their jobs.

A two-hour meeting at Beaumont and a similar gathering at Galveston yesterday failed to end the walkout, in its ninth day today.

About 1,000 workers at Beaumont and about 500 at Galveston are involved. All have asked a 12 per cent across-the-board wage boost, equal to 13 to 21 cents per hour. All are members of the AFL Metal Trades Council.

Sources in both cities yesterday said progress had been made in the meetings. At Galveston it was learned that unionists—striking at Bethlehem shipyards—indicated a 14-cent settlement would be acceptable if the company granted other contract "fringe items," all involving money.

Federal Mediator J. O. Hubbard, Houston, however, said no progress had been made toward termination of the Beaumont strike.

Sources at Galveston said both sides had made concessions. The 500 men striking there are from ten strike-bound repair yards.

Galveston unionists were said to have abandoned the 12 per cent wage increase while company officials offered a two-cent hourly boost for laborers instead of the original one-cent rise.

The laborer wage was believed at Galveston to be the main point holding up settlement. It was reported boosts for other job classifications had been agreed on.

Emotions May Cause Those Stomach Aches

San Antonio, Jan. 25. (AP)—Your emotions can cause as many stomach upsets as the rich food you ate last night, says Dr. Henry L. Bockus.

The Philadelphia stomach specialist headed a question-and-answer discussion here yesterday as the three-day International Medical Assembly drew to a close.

Nervous tensions, Dr. Bockus said, may be the cause of such digestive tract disorders as diarrhea, abdominal pain, and constipation. He said more often than not, such disorders are due to nervousness.

He said Americans should learn more about mental hygiene but added:

"You shouldn't conclude that you are neurotic just because stomach disorders show up."

Political Picture Is Worse Fogged

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—Congressmen reached widely differing conclusions today as result of President Truman's remarks about leaving the door open for him to run for his old Senate seat instead of seeking another White House term.

Size of New Homes May Be Limited

New York, Jan. 25. (AP)—Uncle Sam is talking about limiting the size of the home you can build this year. In return, builders could start as many new homes as the allotment of metal will let them finish.

This may surprise some folk who think the builders themselves have been doing a pretty successful job of limiting living space for some time now. The new Federal rules—which an official of the National Production Administration says are planned for next month—also will come at a time when more and more builders are wondering out loud if they haven't gone too far in limiting the living space left after the expensive gadgets are installed.

Builders started making homes smaller because of the rising cost of construction and because of the public demand for home appliances as in-place essentials. This sent the finished price soaring. To meet this demand and cut back on costs, builders made the home smaller.

For example, they stock a utility room with heater and appliances and eliminate attics and basements. People like the conveniences but they miss the space to store the keepsakes they never use but can't throw away.

If Uncle Sam goes through with the new rules limiting the size of homes to be built this year, it will not be to limit living space, but to stretch out scarce materials over as many homes as possible. The new idea is to let builders start as many homes as they like—if they use only the amount of scarce metals (chiefly copper, product) allowed and restrict the size of the house. Government planners think this would mean about 800,000 new homes this year. There were more than a million last year.

Builders say shortages are confined mostly to fittings made of brass or copper. There are plenty of sinks, bathtubs, furnaces, water heaters, lumber, and most plumbing goods except spigots, traps and other brass trim, both builders and NPA officials agree.

But it's what an NPA official calls "a severe shortage of plumbers' brass goods" that will act as a brake on housing. Officials say that only enough metal has been allocated to home builders for 600,000 units this year, but they add that 800,000 units could be started if builders draw on their inventories of brass goods and other supplies, "and follow the new rules soon to be announced."

More Homes for Military Needed

Washington, Jan. 25. (AP)—Steps were taken today to encourage construction of new rental and sales housing for military personnel and defense workers in five states west of the Mississippi.

The Housing and Home Finance Agency suspended real estate credit controls for construction of 300 units around Ardmore, Okla., 250 of them rental and the other 50 sales; 200 in the Great Falls, Mont., area, 150 rental and 50 sales; and 50 units near Brady, Texas, 40 rental and 10 for sale.

Of the 250 rental units for the Ardmore area, which covers Carter County, 25 would be one-bedroom apartments with a $60 monthly maximum rent, 25 would contain two bedrooms and rent for up to $67.50, 150 would have two bedrooms and rent for up to three or more bedrooms and rent for not more than $85 a month.

Thirty of the sales units would have two bedrooms and sell for up to $8,500. The other 20 would have at least three bedrooms and cost the buyer up to $9,750.

This housing is intended for personnel at the Ardmore Air Force Base.

At Brady, the 40 rental units intended for workers at the Brady Aviation Co., would contain two bedrooms and rent for up to $67.50 a month. The 10 sales units also would have two bedrooms and cost up to $8,000. This area includes McCulloch County.

Three Men Seek Office Of Sheriff At Quannah

Quannah, Jan. 25.—Three men have announced as candidates for the office of Sheriff of Hardeman County in the race which thus far is holding the principal interest of voters.

Malon C. Owen, incumbent, has announced his candidacy for re-election as Sheriff, and Tom C. Garman and W. O. (Dick) Akers have thrown their hats into the ring.

There are only two other races in the county in which two aspirants are seeking the offices. Roy Hamrick, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Jack Taylor as Commissioner of Precinct 1, is seeking another term and is opposed by C. M. (Slim) Marquart. A. W. (Areh) Tabor, incumbent Commissioner of Precinct 4, is opposed by J. W. (Jack) Jones in his re-election effort.

Quannah, Jan. 25.—At the same time the City Council of Quannah was turning down the water rate request and wrangling with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. over a rate increase, the body doubled the service rate of the city-owned sewer system. The sewer fee in Quannah was raised from 50 cents per month to $1, and the new fee will be effective June 1. Aldermen explained that the increase in the sewer rate would help defray expenses of removal of garbage from the residential district.

Vernon, Plainview Meet in Cage Battle Tonight

Lamesa Goes To Midland In Top Tilt

The Vernon Lions, still weak from a siege of flu, will be battling to get above the .500 mark in District 1-AAA cage play tonight when they meet the Plainview Bulldogs at Lion gym.

First game of the A-B double-header is slated to get under way at 6:15.

The Lions have been busy engaged in mid-term examinations all week, thus making full practice sessions difficult.

Coach Bob Persival is expected to open with the same five of Ramon Towry, James Tull, Gordie Harvey, Jerry Thomas and Lester Dye.

Other boys have been getting their chance in workouts and indications are that Coach Persival may substitute freely if the first five aren't clicking.

The Bulldogs, coached by Robert Clindaniel, former Olney mentor, were rated strong pre-season favorites to cop the title. However, they have dropped tilts to Lamesa and to Midland in two starts.

The Lions have a win over Sweetwater and a loss to Big Spring on their slate.

Other 1-AAA action will send Lamesa to Midland and Sweetwater to Big Spring. The Lamesa-Midland game will determine a definite district leader.

Top Quintets Eye Berths In Tourneys

New York, Jan. 25. (AP)—Brigham Young and Dayton, finalists in the National Invitation basketball tournament last year, are after another bid to a post-season tourney.

The Brigham Young Cougars, winner of the NIT and defending champions in the Skyline Conference, chalked up their fourth straight league victory last night with a 59-53 decision over Denver's Pioneers.

The Cougars, however, have not done so well outside of their own league. Their over-all record is 14-5, including losses to such court powers as Kentucky, Villanova and St. John's of Brooklyn.

Dayton, beaten 62-43 by Brigham Young in the NIT title game, rang up its 14th victory in 17 starts with an 80-74 decision over Georgetown.

LaSalle of Philadelphia also continued in running for a tournament bid, whipping Loyola of Baltimore 90-65 for its 13th triumph in 14 games.

Detroit moved into a tie for third place in the Missouri Valley Conference race with a 67-55 decision over Tulsa.

In the Border Conference West Texas beat Texas Tech, 66-57.

FUN ALONG THE SEASHORE—The old shell game gets a prettier treatment than usual by two lovely beachcombers on the strand at St. Petersburg, Fla. Whiling away their time in sun-warmed leisure are Adrienne Pope and Shirley Hyde and, once on the beach, they're at no loss for something to do.

Boros Takes Lead In Phoenix Meet

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 25. (AP)—Husky Julius Boros, a sophomore on golf's tournament circuit, swung into the second round of the $10,000 Phoenix Open today with two of the roughest competitors in the sport pressing on his neck.

Boros, 31, Mid Pines, N. C., knocked out a five under par 66 in the first round yesterday and started out today just two shots in front of Lloyd Mangrum and Dr. Cary Middlecoff.

The scene is the Phoenix Country Club—6,578 yards long, par 36-35—71.

Seventeen pros broke par in the initial 18 holes and 12 more equalled regulation figures.

Boros toured the course in 33-33-66. Middlecoff, the golfing dentist from Memphis, did it in 34-34-68, and Mangrum, Chicago, carded 35-33-68.

Standard Oil Bowlers Set Torrid Pace in Pin League

The Standard Oilers, mired in the cellar position a few weeks ago, continued their rapid climb in the standings of the Vernon Bowling League by sweeping three straight from Collins Motor and moving into the number two position.

Richard Beck paced the Oilers with 489 pins. The Oilers have now won 16 out of the last 18 games. Leading the Motor Company team was Weldon Neill with a 440 series.

The pace-setting Susie Q team took two out of three from the faltering M&M Cleaners team. Billy Smith led the Cafe Keglers with a 494 series and John Lynn paced the Cleaners with 543.

Lynn took down both high series and high game honors with 543.

Although warmer weather was on the way, it was still below zero in parts of the North Central region early today. Zero weather was reported in northeastern part of the country as the Arctic air spread eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Texas Christian to Contest Oklahoma City in Top Tilt

(By The Associated Press)

Three of the nation's top six defensive teams see basketball action in games involving Southwest Conference quintets this week end.

Oklahoma City University, second in the nation's list of defensive stalwarts; Texas A&M, third; and Texas Christian, sixth, all are involved.

The Southwest Conference leader—TCU—endangers a glittering 14-1 season record Saturday night in Oklahoma City in a game with Oklahoma City University.

The Oklahoma quint whipped the Texas Aggies, 62-53, in its last outing with a Southwest team and has held all opposition to a 46.2-point average in 13 games.

In two games Friday night, winless Baylor plays Rice, winner of one conference game, at Waco. And the Texas Aggies play the University of Houston at Houston.

Baylor will try to keep Gene Schwingler, 6-6 soph center, and speedy little Leonard Childs from burning the nets while Rice tries to stop the Bears' 6-3 Ralph Johnson, a 20-year-old shooting wizard who has scored 206 points this season.

The Houston Cougars whipped the Texas A&M quint, 38-29, in a game Dec. 8, and may do it again. The Aggies, however, have shown some improvement since that December date and could hold the Missouri Valley Conference membership. The Aggies are third defensively in the nation with their opponents picking up an average of only 47.4 points per game.

Rice will be trying to improve its sixth place standing in the conference race. The Owls last week whipped the Arkansas Razorbacks, 48-46, after the Hogs had downed Baylor, 54-38.

The OCU-TCU game may be one of the season's lowest scoring games between major basketball powers. OCU has gained its second place defensive position by allowing the opposition only 46.2 points per game in 13 starts while TCU has given up 48.1 points in 15 starts to rank sixth nationally on the defense.

Oklahoma City, Jan. 25. (AP)—The remains of Jesse Chisholm, pioneer trail blazer of the Southwest, will be moved from an untended grave near Enid along U. S. 81 to a plot near Enid along U. S. 81—the Chisholm Trail Highway.

Directors of the Oklahoma Historical Society approved the removal plans yesterday.

Enid citizens had proposed moving the grave of the mixed-blood Cherokee trader whose name became attached to the most famous trail leading north to Kansas from Texas.

The board named Dr. T. N. McCash and H. B. Bass, both of Enid, and Judge Thomas A. Edwards, Cordell, members of a committee to direct the removal.

Chisholm's present grave was located and identified in 1930. It is on the North Canadian River in Blaine County.

Sir Samuel Baker, British explorer, was appointed Governor of African Sudan in the early 1870's by the Egyptian Khedive.

FACING THE FUTURE WITH HOPE

Out of the church this couple comes to face a future that's unknown. With HOPE as their watchword and FAITH as a shield they have made themselves one in the sight of the Almighty and are determined to sail the uncharted seas of time together.

The same church under whose watchcare they grew up now has furnished the setting for their holy matrimonial vows. Now they are one of the greatest institutions—HOME. One of their chief responsibilities will be to see that their church has their help in filling its most worthy mission upon earth. Be sure to attend the church of your choice regularly.

TWO KINDS OF NEWS ABOUT SAVINGS

The American people saved almost $15 billion in the third quarter of 1951, according to a report issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Savings which can be quickly converted into cash, classified as liquid, amounted to $5,700,000,000. This is the highest amount put into this class of savings in a three-month period since the fourth quarter of 1945. In the third quarter of 1950 the savings reached a total of only $800,000,000.

It would be hard to overemphasize the importance of these huge amounts of money earned by the American people but which were not spent. To find the explanation of this increase in savings will not be an easy task. For one thing it suggests that many people have decided that prices of many types of goods and services are too high. This theory finds support in figures for department store sales during the last half of 1951.

Possible meaning also is to be found in the probability that there may be a shift in economic trends. Money for several years now has been very cheap. Perhaps people believe the time is near at hand when money will be worth more and they are saving their dollars in the expectation that they will buy more later on. This, of course, is merely another way of saying prices are too high.

This theory is borne out by the report that the net reduction in the amount of United States Savings Bonds during the third quarter of 1951 was $100,000,000, compared with $300,000,000 and $200,000,000 in first and second quarters, respectively, of this year.

But the significance of a decline in purchases of Government Savings Bonds in the face of a huge increase in savings must not be overlooked. Stated very bluntly, the figures prove that people generally do not regard Government bonds as the best form of investment for their savings. Too bad our Washington officials don't realize the meaning of that fact.

MR. McGRATH CONFESSES PREVIOUS NEGLIGENCE

It is of considerable interest that Attorney General J. Howard McGrath has gone to the trouble of making a special announcement about plans to clean up the executive branch of the Federal Government. President Truman recently directed the Attorney General to have charge of the long overdue investigation into graft and corruption. This happened some weeks after Mr. Truman announced he would set up a special commission to handle the delousing job, which Congressional investigating committees had shown was needed.

Federal Judge Thomas F. Murphy, prosecutor of Alger Hiss, was called to Washington and offered the job of heading a special cleanup commission. After tentatively accepting the assignment Judge Murphy turned it down for reasons which have not been fully explained. Then followed a period of silence and finally the President announced that he had asked the Attorney General to do his duty.

Why Mr. McGrath had not been so engaged all along has not been explained, but enough is known for most people to understand this strange procedure. The simple fact is that the Attorney General was so mixed up in the whole mess that he couldn't do anything without repudiating some of his own lieutenants and without prosecuting subordinates in his own Department.

But after disclosures resulted in indictments of many Government officials and other had resigned it is now possible, apparently, for the Justice Department to take action. It might be suggested that this new diligence on the part of the Attorney General is within itself an admission of the gravest sort of neglect of duty, and he underscores that fact by announcing that special prosecutors, chosen without regard to political affiliation, will be brought into the Department to have charge of the cleanup.

A lot of people are late for church because they have to change attire; and a lot of others because they have to change a dollar.

What we can't understand is how nature takes care of things, even though they may happen years and years later. For instance, look how our nose and ears are located, just to hold spectacles.

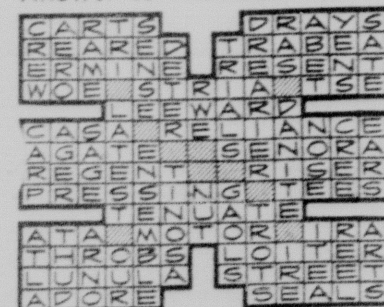

Death and taxes are certain; but you feel the effect of death only once.

DPA Chief Has Woeful Week When Everything Goes Kaput

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—(NEA)—Defense Production Administrator Manly Fleischmann had a pretty tough week just before the holidays. It all began one morning when he drove his car into the basement garage of the big new General Accounting building where he is boss. A guard who didn't recognize Fleischmann as the head man stopped him as he started to park his car in its assigned place. "You can't park like that," the guard ordered. "You'll have to back out, drive your car around the passageway in back of those other cars, and come into your space from the other side."

Meekly, in order to avoid an argument and to abide by regulations, Fleischmann complied, though it meant circumnavigating the block-long basement of the big building.

SOME time later, upstairs in his own office, Mr. Fleischmann's wife called him from home to report the plumbing was frozen and a pipe had burst. The plumber had come and was there. But he reported he couldn't make the necessary repairs because he couldn't get a priority for an allocation of copper.

DPA boss Fleischmann also happens to be National Production Authority Administrator. In this latter capacity, he runs the program for allocation of scarce materials—steel, aluminum and copper.

He therefore knew that the plumber didn't know what he was talking about, and that for the repair and maintenance of essential civilian services, the plumber could apply for and get the necessary priority on copper to fix his bathroom.

So, over the telephone, Fleischmann talked to the plumber and told him just what forms to use and just where and how to apply for whatever scarce materials were necessary.

That was not much more than taken care of when a toy manufacturer came into Fleischmann's office to protest and appeal a ruling by NPA which had denied an allocation of steel to the toy maker's firm. The man got pretty hot about it.

But Fleischmann stuck to his official guns. Toy-making was not an essential industry. Steel was needed for national defense. Therefore, not a pound of steel on priority for toys.

The toy-maker was still unconvinced and not at all inclined to take this decision as final. He looked at Fleischmann for a minute and then said solemnly:

"What this issue comes down to, Mr. Fleischmann, is 'Are you for children, or are you against them?'"

THIS was enough to ruin any temporary bureaucrat's peace of mind, but there was one more blow in store for Fleischmann. He went to the airport to take a plane back to his home town of Buffalo. With him was his former boss and law partner, John Lord O'Brien, chief counsel of the old War Production Board.

They were the last two passengers to board the plane. As they stepped into the cabin the stewardess greeted them with:

"I'm sorry, but you two passengers will have to go without supper on this trip. There are 26 passengers aboard and they sent me only 24 box suppers. You don't have a high enough priority."

With U. S. defense production officials frowning on any more use of natural gas as a fuel to generate steam for electric power production, there's a big search on for locations where big blocks of power might be steam-generated for industrial production.

Best bets in sight are the lignite fields of North Dakota and the strip-mine coal fields of southern Ohio. The idea now is that generating plants could be built right over the fuel supply, with the aluminum or other defense production plants close by.

Three Persons Die In Dallas Blaze

DALLAS, Jan. 25. (AP)—W. H. Flippen, about 75, prominent Dallas attorney, his wife and their maid died of suffocation from smoke early today when their Highland Park home was badly damaged by fire.

Flippen was one of the founders of Highland Park, exclusive Dallas suburb. The maid was identified as Eda Gerard.

Firemen said they believed Flippen was a semi-invalid. From evidence in the home, they believed Mrs. Flippen aided him in getting into his wheel chair when the fire was discovered. He then fell from the chair, Mrs.

Dr. Logan's Wife

By Diana Gaines

THE STORY: Janet Logan, whose well-ordered life is upset by her attraction to a young and charming biophysicist, Peter Surinoff, contributes to Peter's movement of slum clearance as a final gesture, and afterwards plans to raise the money, Janet has sold a diamond bracelet which she inherited and gave Peter a certified check for the amount, $1200. Peter is in the middle of a fight at Angela's hospital where he is doing research in atomic medicine. Maxwell Cota, hospital head, holds real estate in the slums and he is trying to have Peter ousted on the pretext that Peter, of Russian extraction, is a Communist, because Peter objected to signing the loyalty oath. Dr. Gus Logan, not suspecting his wife's infatuation, has supported Peter.

XXI
THURSDAY morning, June 15, Maxwell Cota, fortified by the immaculate sweetness of Valencia orange juice, faced the fact that to this day he had lived one half of a century.

Despite his wealth, he had worked hard. No one could say that he was the lazy, spoiled son of a rich man. He had missed a day at the hospital in 10 years. He housed his paralytic sister whom another man might have put away. No one could say he was not a dutiful son and brother. Besides, Elvira's presence in the 14-room house gave point to its upkeep, and Maxwell would have been loath to abandon it now that he was master.

He gave $10,000 a year (his hospital salary) to charity as his father had done before him, and he lived comfortably but modestly off the income from the wine business, paid his property taxes from the profits of the Elvira Beach Hotel, and never touched his principal. Neither miser nor spendthrift, mindful of family and community obligations, he led an exemplary life.

He discounted the interns' call-the man was a Communist, but there was reason to suspect it from his rabble-rousing behavior. Peter Surinoff's insubordination in the matter of the loyalty oath had played directly into his hands. It transformed any action taken against the man from persecution to patriotism. The Monday night meeting had been a disappointment to Cota. The fact that he, superintendent, had to get a vote of permission from a bunch of doctors who knew nothing about administration in order to fire a non-medical employee, was infuriating. The founding fathers had undoubtedly meant well when they organized the hospital as a democratic autonomy, separate from the university proper. They were better equipped to run a hospital than businessmen and politicians, and they had accordingly drawn up a charter which provided that a medical executive committee, composed of staff department heads, make hospital policy by means of majority vote.

THERE were 11 men on the committee. The head of the orthopedics department was in bed with a virus, the eye man on summer vacation. The Chief of Staff and at least three others could be counted on to vote Cota's way, had in fact prepared brief speeches which he had already read. If Warner and Rappaport persisted in supporting Pelletier and Logan, that made four against four. The pediatric man, who could break the tie, had not returned. Cota's repeated phone calls. It was possible that Pelletier had already got to him.

Well, if the doctors would not see reason in this matter, Cota was prepared to exploit a political connection or two. There were plenty of men in the state of California who understood the publicity value of crying "peril!"—especially now that they faced the November elections. Nor would the incumbent office-holders object to the support of "the university's" powerful regents who were fighting mad about resistance of any kind to the loyalty check they had devised.

Morris Harvey College and Radio Station WCHS.

The project was started the second semester in 1950 with a single course—Comparative Government.

Radio Classroom students registered at the college just as they would for an on-campus course. They received a course outline, reading assignments and a schedule of reports due.

Panel Discussion on Radio
Then each Friday night at 10 o'clock the students tuned their radios on WCHS.

Morris Harvey faculty panel, usually of four members, discuss for 30 minutes the topic listed for the week in the course outline. Chairman of the lively give-and-take sessions was Harry W. Brawley. He is WCHS director of public affairs and a part-time associate professor of economics and political science at Morris Harvey.

The Comparative Government course covered 18 tape-recorded Friday night broadcasts.

After each broadcast, students had textbook and outside reading to do and sometimes reports to write. Radio Classroom also required them to attend three on-campus meetings at Morris Harvey during the semester.

Set up to give further instruction and examinations, the on-campus meetings also developed into brisk question and answer periods.

Forty-nine persons completed the first course satisfactorily and received three hours of residence credit at Morris Harvey.

Radio Classroom has expanded this semester to two courses—Modern Problems of Government and Christianity and American Democracy.

The government course has 39 persons enrolled for its broadcasts at 10 o'clock each Friday night. The religion course, which has 64 students, is broadcast at 1:30 Sunday afternoons.

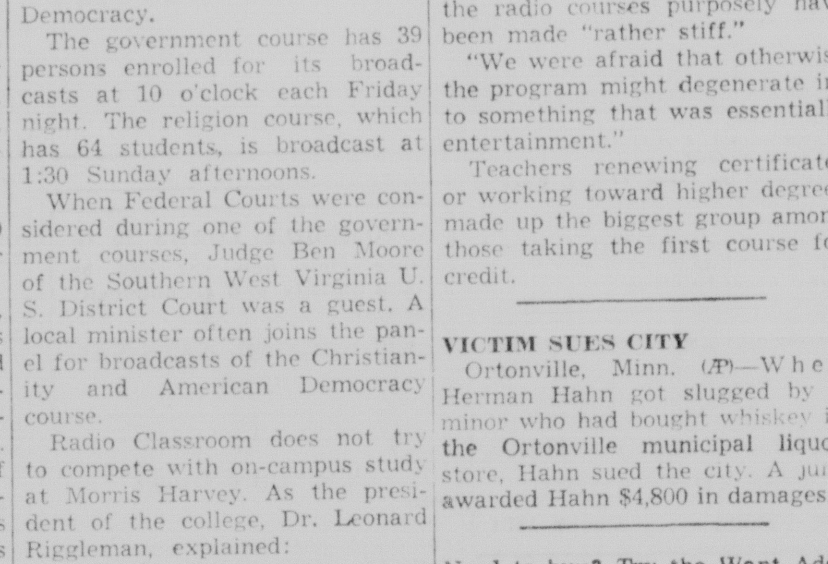

When Federal Courts were considered during one of the government courses, Judge Ben Moore of the Southern West Virginia U. S. District Court was a guest. A local minister often joins the panel for broadcasts of the Christianity and American Democracy course.

Radio Classroom does not try to compete with on-campus study at Morris Harvey. As the president of the college, Dr. Leonard Riggelman, explained:

Report on Critical Road Problem Is Being Pushed

Houston, Jan. 25. (AP)—A highway commission drive to present an "unvarnished report" of what the group calls a critical road problem has been revealed by the body's chairman.

E. H. Thornton, Jr., the chairman, said yesterday the State needs to spend 219 million dollars annually on its roads, 100 million more than is being spent now.

Thornton said he and other commission members, Fred Wemple, Midland, and R. H. Potts, Harlingen, planned to take "an unvarnished report of the critical road problem" to every major city in the State. He spoke at a highway appreciation week luncheon.

He said the money was needed to re-vitalize the State's aging primary highways and to continue needed construction on new farm and urban roads.

The Highway Commission chief said "with England expecting again" there was little chance to finance the roads with federal money.

Thornton pointed to "great progress" in farm-to-market road development in Texas but said the State's primary roads had deteriorated greatly. The primary roads, he said, comprise 41 per cent of the rural mileage but carry 71 per cent of the traffic.

He said 12½ per cent of the 16,000 mile primary road total in Texas had passed its normal 20-year life expectancy and that fully half was more than ten years old.

He listed wartime neglect, underfinancing of highway programs, rising population and inflation as the chief causes of highway deterioration.

Thornton said ten per cent of the bridges in the primary system were too weak to hold legal loads and half were either too narrow or spanned too low to accommodate modern traffic. He said it would take 245 million dollars to replace the outmoded bridges.

He said such a program if continued would "get the farmers out of the mud but we won't be able to get him to market." Highway traffic deaths would increase, he said.

The highway commissioner suggested that additional funds needed for a better highway system might come from either an increased road-use tax or that road funds should be used for roads only instead of being channeled for other purposes.

Youth Week Is Proclaimed Here

Governor Allan Shivers has proclaimed Jan. 27 to Feb. 3 as Youth Week. "In these crucial times we need young people who are willing to act upon their religious convictions," said the Governor. "We need them in Texas, in our nation and in our world."

Youth Week is sponsored by the United Christian Youth Movement, youth agency of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. It represents 10 million Christian youth of 39 co-operating denominations. Youth Week will be officially launched in Vernon Sunday night at a 6 o'clock meeting in the sanctuary of the Central Christian Church. It was announced this week.

Highlighting the week is The Call to United Youth Action in an endeavor to enlist a million youth for Christ. The Call will be explained in detail to Vernon young people Sunday night, according to Mary Ann Henderson, local youth chairman of The Call. Most of the churches of Vernon are participating in the united program. Miss Betty Ruth Plumley, director of religious education at the Central Christian Church, is adult adviser for the program.

Youth Week will be climaxed in Vernon with a consecration service Feb. 3 in the chapel of the First Methodist Church. Local young people will be given an opportunity of committing themselves to The Call. The local program will coincide with similar activities throughout the nation. Miss Plumley said. It was stressed that The Call did not interfere with denominational loyalties, but sought to bring about youth cooperation at the point of agreement.

"PLEASED TO MEET YOU"—Triplets from Scarsdale, N. Y., are admiring an 11-year-old crow named Deacon during a children's party given in New York by the Zoological Society. Wendy, Devon and Robin Dalsgaard make up the trio of 4½-year-old sisters, and introducing them to the bird is Corinne Dalsgaard, "zooprintendent" of the Children's Zoo.

Farce Comedy Is Scheduled Here

Casting of the farce comedy, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," or "Tempted, Tried and True," to be presented Feb. 21-22 by the Classroom Teachers Association of Vernon in the Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium will begin Monday, Jan. 28. Warren T. White, Jr., speech arts director of the Vernon

High School, announced today.

"Dirty Work at the Crossroads" is a three-act, gay-90's melodrama by Bill Johnson and will be presented with special permission with the Samuel French Company.

The ridiculous burlesque tells in laughable style the tear-jerking story of Nellie, an innocent country girl and the pitfalls she has to overcome.

The cast for the melodrama will be drawn from the 72 classes of teachers after tryouts. The entire classroom membership will participate in the production of the play or in the variety numbers between acts. The show will be directed by Mr. White. He will be assisted by Mrs. E. E. Powell.

The cast will be announced Tuesday, and rehearsals are scheduled to get under way immediately.

Mr. White said, "There is a little ham in all of us and teachers are no exception. This production will probably set drama back 100 years."

SAVES LAD'S LIFE

San Antonio, Jan. 25. (AP)—James Cobb, 11, was credited today with saving the life of Roger Tobin Lohrke, 5. Tobey's fringed cowboy shirt caught fire from a campfire the boys were playing with. He quickly used his Cub Scout knowledge to quickly use. He smothered his younger boy and smothered his blazing clothes with his own shirt. Doctors said his quick action saved the smaller boy's life. James thinks maybe he'll be a fireman when he grows up.

Border Cities May Get Water

El Paso, Jan. 25. (AP)—Relief today for water-short residents of Matamoros, Mexico, and Brownsville, Texas, was seen by an official of the International Boundary and Water Commission.

L. M. Lawson, Commissioner of the U. S. section of the group, said relief might come through agreement on a proration schedule among those taking Rio Grande water above the two cities.

It was reported that Matamoros would lodge a formal protest against the U. S. with charges of violation of the International Water Agreement.

Lawson said yesterday distribution of the river water was entirely in the hands of irrigation districts and independent pumpers. He added that they usually agreed on proration when water was low.

He said his office had sent messages calling attention of irrigators to the necessity of a sufficient flow of water for Brownsville and Matamoros.

Matamoros residents were rationed to six hours of water daily yesterday, while officials prepared a protest to be filed through the Mexican Embassy in Washington.

The treaty guarantees Matamoros a flow of 35 cubic feet per second. Yesterday the flow was near zero.
